1. Gasoline allotments in Yugoslavia have been curtailed to such an extent that only industrial enterprises of high priority, Yugoslav security forces, and the ministries are allowed gas and receive only 40 percent of their previous allotments. For example, the Slovene State organization, "Tehnika in Sport" previously receiving 3,500 liters per month, at present has been cut to 500 liters. Private individuals are not allowed any gasoline ration at all and civilian passenger flights are said to have been cancelled.
2. Automobile tire stocks (size 16x500 to 16x550), produced in the "Bata-Borovo" and "Sava" factories are exhausted, and Russian-made "Juznoauto-stradnea" automobile tire shipments have ceased. A serious bottleneck, however, has been avoided because in June 1948, American Goodyear, Firestone, General and Dunlap Cord tires, as well as American vehicles were available.
